Bosch Announces 2013 Green Living Awards Winners

- Bosch Green Living Awards recognize contractors, builders & specifiers
- Awards for best use of Bosch products for energy efficiency & sustainability
- Children's Art Contest for best creative expressions on environmental themes
- Total System Solution winner recognized at Bosch event in NYC

Londonderry, New Hampshire – Bosch Thermotechnology Corp. has announced the winning entries in its first annual Green Living Awards contest. The Green Living Awards, sponsored by Bosch Thermotechnology North America, is open to installing contractors and dealers, home and light commercial builders, and engineering specifiers to reward selection and installation of Bosch high efficiency products. In addition, the Green Living Awards contest includes an art, photography and creative writing contest for children 2-16 years old.

The Bosch Green Living Awards for North America are modeled after a highly successful program in the United Kingdom carried out since 2000 by Worcester Bosch (UK). The contest is designed to emphasize Bosch's commitment to protecting the environment while encouraging energy efficient, sustainable practices in HVAC.

Award categories include A/C geothermal, floor/wall-mounted boilers, domestic hot water and a Total System Solution award recognizing an installation employing a combination of Bosch, Buderus & FHP heating/cooling products. Winners in each category receive a cash gift card from Bosch.
